POSSE SEARCHES HILLS FOR NEGRO

Cornelius B. Land Wanted for Shooting Superintendent
Sloane.

HAPPENED AT DILLSBURG

Wounds Not Expected to Prove Fatal.
Officer Weikert Fired at Negro Believed to be Land.

All day Thursday and all last night regardless of the drizzling rain which fell continually and soaked them to the skin fifty men from Dillsburg and vicinity searched the Cumberland and Adams county mountains for Cornelius B. Land, a negro, charged with shooting William Sloane, superintendent of the Langhorn Company engaged in constructing thirteen miles of the Harrisburg Road, near Dillsburg.

Superintendent Sloane was hit in one leg at the thigh and the other at the ankle. It is expected that the wounds will not prove fatal or even very serious.

About 11:30 o'clock on Thursday night Andrew Weikert, Gettysburg night policeman, fired two shots at a negro believed to be Land who had jumped an eastbound Western Maryland freight train.

Shortly before that time C. A. Fox, also of the Gettysburg night police force, received a telephone message from State Police stating that the negro charged with shooting Superintendent Sloane had been seen going toward Gettysburg and was thought to be waiting an opportunity to jump a freight for Baltimore.

Officers Weikert and Fox immediately went to the Western Maryland yards near the warehouse of C. M. Wolf where a freight train was preparing to leave for Baltimore and informed the conductor of the message from the State Police.

"The state constables believe the negro they want is in Gettysburg waiting a chance to get to Baltimore," said Officer Weikert, "and we want you to keep a sharp lookout for him. If you find him turn him over to the authorities at Hanover."

The night policemen continued to search the premises for several minutes when the train started on its journey toward Baltimore.

After the train gathered slight speed Officers Weikert said he saw a negro of medium height and build, corresponding to the description of Land given by the State Police, jump out of the darkness and on to one of the box cars.

Weikert fired twice but does not know if either of his shots took effect.

Neither Officer Fox nor Weikert was able to see if the negro bore face scars described as belonging to Land by the State Police.

Late Wednesday night Superintendent Sloane went to the quarters of the Langhorn gang stationed at Clearspring, about three miles from Dillsburg, and told Cornelius Land that his services were no longer required as a workman on the road being converted from dirt into concrete. Land attempted to argue with Mr. Sloane, it is said, but no fight occurred at that time.

As the superintendent was coming out to work about 7:30 o'clock on Thursday morning, according to word from Dillsburg, he saw the negro he had discharged the previous night coming right toward him with a revolver in his hand.

"I told you last night that you were fired from this job and ordered you off the premises then," said Superintendent Sloane at the same time making a dash at the colored man, for it appeared that he aimed the revolver dangerously close to the breast of his former employer.

As Sloane jumped toward him, Land fired, but the bullets struck low fortunately and the quick action of the superintendent probably saved his life.

Very few persons were around the quarters at the time of the shooting and those who were there, it is stated, ran to the aid of the fallen Sloane and momentarily forgot to watch the actions of the negro who made the best of his opportunity by disappearing in the underbrush.

Dr. Crawford, of Dillsburg, was summoned and he extricated one bullet which had gone almost through the superintendent's thigh.

News of the shooting spread rapidly through Dillsburg and the surrounding country and is a short time State Policemen were summoned from Mechanicsburg and a volunteer posse of about fifty men organized.

Feeling against the negro workmen arose to such a height, it is said, that all of them were discharged by the Langhorn company although there was no evidence that any of them, excepting Land, was connected with the shooting of the superintendent.

Land evidently wasted no time in putting as many miles as possible between himself and the Clearspring camp for although the State Police and posse searched the entire day and night for him their many hours of effort proved unavailable.

Late Thursday night a report from Dillsburg said that the State Police and posse were coming in the direction of Gettysburg as it was thought the negro might be hiding in mountains near here.

The Langhorn Company headquarters are at New York City and they are constructing sections of the Harrisburg road north of the five and one quarter mile stretch being constructed by M. Bennett and Sons.

FINE RESULTS OF SIX MONTHS WORK

Two Mile Concrete Stretch Now Open for Travel.

Splendid results of six months labor by M. Bennett and Sons, of Indiana, contractors for the new concrete Harrisburg road, were seen on Thursday afternoon when the stretch of road extending two miles north of Shriver's farm was opened for travel.

When the last portions of dirt and sand that had been put on the drying road to protect it were removed the long stretch of level concrete formed a vivid comparison to the rough dirt road which six months ago was used as the main thoroughfare between Gettysburg and the state capital. Inspectors who have seen the road since its completion say it is one of the most beautiful pieces of work done in Pennsylvania this year.

The task of pouring concrete on the last three and one quarter miles of the job continues rapidly and if steel material needed in the construction of the road is not delayed there is a great probability that the entire five and one quarter miles will be open to travel before winter arrives.

NIGHT COURSES AT HIGH SCHOOL

Board of Education Takes Step Forward at Meeting Thursday Night.

OFFER COMMERCIAL WORK

Opportunity for Young Men and Women Who are Employed During the Day.

In order that the people of Gettysburg and vicinity may profit by the advantages offered High School students and that the community may be benefited by a night school, it was decided at a meeting of the Board of Education, Thursday night, to open the Commercial Department to the public three evenings a week. The plan was presented by Miss Helen Cope, superintendent of the town schools.

Former students of High School who were forced to discontinue their courses or other residents of the community who desire to take up the study of shorthand, typewriting and bookkeeping, may join the night class by conferring with Professor Guy Wolf, who is head of the High School Commercial Course.

Many requests from persons in Gettysburg and efforts of education leaders here convinced the Board of Education that a night school would be of great benefit to the community and would soon prove a popular movement. Under the capable tutelage of Professor Wolf it is felt that pupils desiring to learn the difficult study of shorthand would be able to become proficient before the end of the scholastic year.

The exact nights for the commercial class will be decided probably at the first meeting which will take place at the High School building on Monday night, October 13, at 7:30 o'clock. At that time the terms of the course and other details will be arranged.

Plans for a night commercial class for Gettysburg were under way several times in former years but Thursday night was the first time that the Board of Education took definite action to allow the class to start, as existing circumstances prior to that time had deemed such a step inadvisable.

School officials believe that persons who ordinarily would have gone to York or some other surrounding city to take a business course will now remain here to take advantage of the opportunity offered them.

SUGAR SHORTAGE IS AGAIN FELT

Supply in Gettysburg is Limited. Some Dealers Give Only Two Pounds at a Time.

TO GIVE TO CANNERIES

And Cut the Shipments to Candy Manufacturers. Same Amount as Last Year is Available.

A scarcity of sugar likely to cause a condition equal in seriousness to the one prevailing during war times is reported by grocers of Gettysburg who state that their stock is running low and that representatives of wholesale houses give little hope or encouragement for shipments.

One representative of a prominent firm in York said that their supply was rapidly decreasing and that they saw no way of increasing their stock at least until after Christmas.

Customers who attempt to buy large quantities of sugar in some of the stores in town are not accommodated with larger sized packages than one or two pounds unless they are preserving fruit, making medicine or engaged in other necessary work requiring sugar.

Throughout the entire country the tendency is growing to cut the supply of sugar to confections and candy manufacturers and increase the supply to medicine and condensed milk manufacturers and fruit preservers.

George A. Zabriske, president of the U. S. sugar equalization board, addressed the following communication recently to James H. Post, chairman American refiners' committee:

"In view of the present abnormal demand for sugar and the inability to keep pace with it, also considering the limited supply, it is the opinion of the board that a committee on distribution should be organized by you, not only to stop duplication of orders, but to give such preferences as were suggested by the food administration somewhat on the order of the old A-B-C-D-E class arrangement."

"Confectioners and candy manufacturers, for instance, ought to be cut down to 50 per cent of their last year's requirements, bakers to 70 per cent and other less essentials regulated accordingly, while preference should be given to manufacturers of medicines, fruit preservers and condensed milk companies. Our observation has been that candy manufacturers have not only had their normal supply of sugar, but in many cases have anticipated their wants and been able to acquire sugar ahead of the expense of more essential industries."

Pressing this further, Mr. Zabriske appeared before the American refiners committee, at their meeting recently, and asked that a committee be appointed to supervise the distribution of cane sugar by the Atlantic coast and gulf refiners for the balance of the year.

In order to carry out the food administration's instructions, plans are being formulated by this committee, and a definite announcement will be made as soon as possible.

Roughly it appears that for the balance of the year there is sufficient cane sugar available to allow for its distribution in the states covered by the cane refiners last fall and winter, in about the same amounts as was distributed in September and October, 1918. Buyers in the cane sugar territory can, therefore, use the amounts received during these months as an index of their probable supply during the remaining three months of this year.

TO COMBINE WITH WOMAN SUFFRAGE

New Organization of Women Voters Will Join in Annual Convention.

LOCAL WOMEN ACTIVE

Would Educate Women to Responsibilities of Voter. Will Not Form a Separate Political Party.

With seventeen states having ratified the Woman's Suffrage Amendment the women voters and suffragists in Pennsylvania and the East are arranging their work with the hope of full ratification in 1920. With this idea in view, a movement is on foot, in which a number of Adams county women are interested, to combine with the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association on November 9-11 in Philadelphia, a new organization, the Non-Partisan League of Women Voters.

A tentative organization was formed last week of the latter league in Gettysburg with Mrs. Elsie Lewars, Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Mrs. Samuel Knox, Mrs. William Arch McClean, Mrs. Walter O'Neal, Mrs. J. B. Baker, Mrs. William R. Granville, Miss Nina Storrick, Mrs. David Forney and Mrs. E. H. True.

The purpose in forming the new organization as outlined by the Woman Suffrage Association will be to educate the women in their personal responsibilities as voters, but will in no sense attempt to form a separate political party. In fact the organization will urge women to affiliate with one of the established political parties.

The convention will open on November 9 with a memorial service to Dr. Anna Shaw. At a banquet the following day at the Bellevue-Stratford, Governor Sproul will be the guest of honor because of his work in securing Pennsylvania's ratification of the Federal amendment on June 24, Pennsylvania, which was the seventh state to ratify, was looked upon by the leaders as the pivotal state.

One of the specific things the women voters are attempting is to lower the cost of living by the ballot. Some of the women leaders contend that the men in the past have opened their political campaigns with bands and fireworks to entice voters, but that the new voter demands no bands but lower prices. The women further state that if the matter of discovering the food profiteer was placed in their hands the anti-profiteering law now before Congress could be efficiently enforced. One member of the Department of Justice has said, "Women have been purchasers of these commodities for years and they should make good detectives of the profiteers."

FIREMEN PARADE

At Lancaster.

A number of Gettysburg Fire company men witnessed the parade in Lancaster at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's convention Thursday. PLAY PLEASURES CROWD

About four hundred persons who witnessed the opening show of the season at the Lincoln Way theatre entitled "The Revelations of a Wife," were well pleased with the production which was decidedly above the standard that has come to Gettysburg in former years.

L. Brooks, as Grant Sterling, Gwendolin Williams, as Alice Sterling, his wife, and Richard Mack, as Michael Benson, the butler, played their parts with an ability that seemed to be enjoyed thoroughly by the audience.

The mystery play which is told in a prologue and four acts came to Gettysburg from one week in Baltimore, one night each in Hanover, Martinsburg and Hagerstown and goes from here to York and Reading.

COMMUNITY SHOW FOR EMMITSBURG

Everything Raised on Farm or Garden Will be Displayed
October 31.

On Friday, October 31, and Saturday, November 1, Emmitsburg, will hold a Community Show. Entries of livestock, grain, fruit, poultry, cured meats, preserves, marmalades, jellies, canned and dried fruits and vegetables—in fact, anything it is possible to raise on a farm or in a garden,—will be displayed.

In the home economics departments there will be shown, in addition to the fruits and other products, samples of needle work, woven rugs, baskets, and the like.

The merchants in Emmitsburg and many individuals have offered prizes for the best entries and decided enthusiasm is being shown throughout the community. P. A. Hauver, county agent, is much interested in the show and the farmers, merchants and town people throughout the entire district are manifesting the keenest interest in what promises to be the banner event in Emmitsburg. Practically only one public announcement has been made of the coming show and the interest being taken is gratifying.

The public school house will be the show place for the under-cover entries, and the Firemen's Field, on which there is already a large pavilion, will be the scene of the livestock judging. Stalls and pens will be erected within this enclosure and the different entries judged on the diamond.

The judges will be experts from the United States Department of Agriculture so that entrants will be assured of impartiality. Full particulars, including the personnel of the committees, will be published later.

SHARKS AND CROOKS

Again Busy at York Fair. Crowd
Near 100,000.

Tin-horn gamblers, human sharks and crooks of various kinds did a flourishing business Thursday on the York County Fair Grounds despite the efforts of the officials to prevent the patrons of the fair from being fleeced. It was the big day of the annual exhibition and the crowd is estimated to have passed the 100,000 mark.

Secretary Heckert, in an effort to explain why the fair this year was not as clean as in the past, declared that the exhibition has assumed such vast proportions that it had gotten beyond the control of the officials. He said it was almost impossible to find young and capable men willing to take jobs as special policemen. An effort was made Thursday to close up the gamblers, but the force of officers was entirely inadequate. Privilege holders were informed that unfair games would not be tolerated, but this order was not heeded as the multitude surged into the grounds. The fair will close to-day.

CAPITAL FLAYS THE CLOSED SHOP

Also Opposed to Collective Bargaining. Sympathetic Strikes Scored.

ADMIT RIGHT TO STRIKE

Government Employees Have Not Strike Privilege. Working Conditions Discussed.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, October 10—Opposition to collective bargaining and the closed shop were among the twelve fundamental principles outlined by the group representing capital and presented to-day to the national industrial conference here. Sympathetic strikes, black list and boycott were declared to be "indefensible, anti-social and immoral."

While deploring strikes and lock-outs the principles set forth the right of the strike or lockout should not be denied as an ultimate resort after all possible means for adjustment had been exhausted.

The right applies to private industry. In public utilities it is proposed that the state impose such regulations as would assure continuous operation and at the same time adequate means for the prompt hearing and adjustment of complaints and disputes. Opposition to the strike of government employees was also expressed by the principle stating that the right of such employees to be heard and to assure just redress was "amply safeguarded."

For the settlement of disputes in private industry it was suggested that each establishment be regarded as an industrial unit with adequate machinery for the adjustment of misunderstandings between the employees and the management. Others of the principles deal with conditions, hours of work, wages and the right to associate and it was declared that every association whether either employees or employers must be equally subject to public authority and legally answerable for the actions of its agents.

STOCK REPORT

United States Steel Reaches Best Quotation Since Strike Started.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 10—The stock market paused briefly in its active operations this morning when profit taking was induced by many gains in speculative issues. Prices soon moved forward again, however, at noon on greater activity of steel. United States Steel rose one and five eighths points reaching 111½, the best quotation since the beginning of the steel strike.

Associated issues went from one to four points higher. Equipment, motors, and oils increased their early gains and the demand for Southern Pacific extended to other rails. Coppers also responded to moderate buying.

AVIATOR PARSON LEADS FLIERS

Lieutenant Maynard Reaches Wyoming in Coast to Coast Air Race.

PLOW INTO SNOWSTORMS

Flying Parson Has Made 1696 Miles in Two Days. Two Machines Reported Missing.

Chicago, October 10.—Eastbound and westbound fliers met in the air at North Platte, Neb., Thursday in the transcontinental reliability race, and Thursday night Lieutenant E. W. Maynard, the "Flying Parson," was at Cheyenne, Wyo., hundreds of miles ahead of the other westbound aviators, while Captain Lowell H. Smith, well in the lead of the contingent from the West, was at Omaha for the night.

Maynard, piloting machine No. 31, left Chicago at 7:09 a. m., central time, and flew 866 miles Thursday, 76 miles more than he covered Wednesday in sailing from New York to Chicago. But his time, chiefly due to adverse weather conditions, which in one form or another extended almost from coast to coast, was slower. He landed at Cheyenne at 6:25 p. m., mountain time, having covered a total distance of 1,696 miles in two days.

Through Snowstorms

Captain Smith, after struggling through three mountain snowstorms, and over three mountain ranges, reached Omaha at 7:20 o'clock Thursday night, having made 852 miles Thursday without accident. His total distance since the start at San Francisco, is 1,460.

The remarkable flights of Maynard and Smith for two days have made the transcontinental race a record event in this country.

At the close of Thursday's flights, the fliers remaining in the race of the 49 starting from Mineola, L. I., and the 15 which left San Francisco, were strung out across the country, most of them accounted for.

Two machines from the West, No. 50, piloted by Second Lieutenant Hall, and another driven by Second Lieutenant Fuen, were missing. At Rawlins, Wyo., it was feared they were lost in the mountain snowstorms.

The day's flights were attended by no fatal accidents.

The most serious of several accidents, nearly all of them of a minor nature, was the spectacular crash of Lieut. E. V. Wales' plane, No. 63, from San Francisco, on Elk Mountain, at Ober Pass, Wyo., in a heavy snowstorm. Pilot Wales was seriously injured, and was taken to a ranchhouse. His passenger, Second Lieutenant William Goldsborough, was only slightly hurt.

While rain in the East and Middle West made landing fields soggy and dangerous, resulting in a few minor accidents, snow in the Rocky Mountain region made flying difficult and hazardous. The snow-screened fields at Rawlins and Green River, Wyo., and the latter early in the day was eliminated from the control stations, the fliers who left Salt Lake City Thursday morning, proceeding to Rawlins.

The meeting of East and West leaders at North Platte, Neb., Thursday virtually marked the half-way point for the two fliers, Maynard and Smith. The city marked off 1,491 of the 2,700-mile trip for Lieutenant Maynard, while for Captain Smith the distance was 1,211 miles. Maynard landed there at 4:14 p. m. and Smith five minutes later.

STEEL PROBE NOW IN PITTSBURGH

Investigating Committee are on the Scene of Strike Action.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Five members of the Senate Labor Committee, headed by Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, chairman, left Washington Thursday night for Pittsburgh, where the investigation of the steel strike authorized by the Senate will be continued.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 10.—The proposal made at the Industrial Conference at Washington by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that the steel strike be immediately arbitrated and that the idle men go back to work at once, was received here Thursday with considerable interest, although the offer is not new. It has been understood here that the strikers were ready to arbitrate at any time since the industrial struggle started. E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, however, is said to be opposed to arbitration at this time, because, he contends, union leaders represent only a minority of the employees of the steel corporation.

Whether there is some new angle to the Gompers arbitration proposition that might be acceptable to the steel corporation was not known here. The only person in authority at national strike headquarters Thursday was W. Z. Foster, the secretary. He said he had no information of his own from Washington and did no care to comment on the arbitration proposal. The case of the steel workers, he said, is in competent hands in Washington, and anything done there no doubt had the approval of the officers of the 24 unions involved in the strike. The Carnegie Steel Company in a statement Thursday said that on an average of 500 men are returning to work daily and that production is increasing. The Jones and Laughlin plant, the big independent concern in this district, is claimed to be working almost normal by company representatives. Strikers, however, declare the plant is operating short-handed.

PINNED UNDER AUTO

Accident Near Dillsburg May Prove Fatal to Mechanicsburg Man.

John Shellhammer, 50 years old, of near Mechanicsburg, was probably fatally injured and his son, C. H. Shellhammer, 30, was seriously hurt when an automobile driven by the latter turned turtle near Dillsburg Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The car skidded on the wet state road and turned over twice, pinning the two and Roy McKince and William Feller, both of near Mechanicsburg, beneath. The elder Shellhammer was taken to the Carlisle Hospital. It is believed his skill is fractured. The son's bruises are lacerations and contusions of the head. He will recover. The party was returning from the York Fair.

REDS PROCLAIMED THE CHAMPIONS

Defeat Chicago White Sox for Fifth Time. Score 10 to 5.

WAS A WIERD CONTEST

Total Attendance for Series 236,928 and Receipts Were $722,111. Players Get $5000 a Piece.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The world's base ball championship pennant for 1919 will fly from Redland Field, Cincinnati, next season.

Pat Moran's athletics invaded hostile territory Thursday and annexed the eighth and deciding game against the Chicago White Sox by a score of 10 to 5.

As expert base ball it was as funny as a sack race. Nearly everything possible happened, including a comic four-run rally by the athletics in the pale hosiery. It never would have happened just as it did if the sun had not entered the lists and blinded the visiting fielders. It was all the funnier for the reason that the Sox were nine runs behind at the time.

Jump on Williams

The Reds after dropping two games on their own grounds on the banks of the Ohio, permitting the Sox to get back in the running for the big emblem, started after the deciding game at the onset. They descended on Claude Williams' left-handed offerings with a determination which sent him into seclusion before the third man was out and Bill James, who hurled from the other side was trotted out. Three runs were scored off Williams and one off James. It was the latter's first appearance in the series and he led a terrible life until the sixth, when, with two men on the sacks, he was given the beckoning finger by Manager Gleason, and Roy Wilkinson, also a right-hander, came forth to remain throughout the holocaust.

The invaders continued their onslaught and sent three runs across the rubber. In the seventh the rangy hurler was somewhat wild and walked two men, but no runs were scored by the leg-weary champions-to-be. In the eighth they annexed another and let it go at that. Their position was so secure that they appeared indifferent, even bored, at the Sox rally which had the effect, largely, of merely stretching the contest out into the longest of the series, namely two hours and 27 minutes.

32,930 Persons Pay

The remarkably good weather of the series was again in evidence, and 32,930 persons paid to see the massacre of the local idols. The attendance for the series was 236,928, and the receipts, exclusive of war tax, $722,111. Of this the players receive $260,349.70 of the amount taken in during the first five games.

The winners share in $117,157.68, which will give $5,207.01 to the participating athletes. This is more than the salaries of most of them, it is said. The Sox players will distribute 24 shares of $3,254.36 each.

Professor and Mrs. Chester Allen, of Lansing, Michigan, announce the birth of a daughter.

Miss Ruth Hamilton, of Carlisle street, left this morning to spend some time with relatives and friends in Baltimore.

NEW sewing factory to be established in Gettysburg will require the services of an experienced forelady, a man to adjust sewing machines and make himself generally useful in factory, and also a young lady as clerk. MARSHALL QUIETS SENATE GALLERY

Demonstration After Attack on League of Nations is Quickly Stopped.

Washington, Oct. 10.—A quick, barking command from Vice-President Marshall at the conclusion late Thursday of a dramatic appeal by Senator Lodge, for a League of Nations that would do justice to oppressed nations of the world, and for reservations to the pending league covenant, broke up in its very beginning a demonstration that threatened for a moment to sweep through the Senate galleries.

For more than an hour senators and visitors had listened intently to the address, and as Senator Walsh laid down the last page of his manuscript, and with arms raised high, pleaded against approval of the Shantung settlement "and the dangers lurking in Article 10" of the league covenant, a faint ripple of applause was instantly followed by a more pronounced outburst.

But it was quickly subdued. The strident voice of the Vice-President was heard above the rising din.

"Remove from the galleries those who have violated the rules of the Senate," the Vice-President shouted, at which gallery guards, apparently bewildered, endeavored to suppress the growing desire of many persons to make known their approval of the Massachusetts senator's view with hands and feet. In the confusion, which spread to the floor, the crowds began to move away, and a few offenders, whose conduct was noted by the guards, were hustled out.

Hitchcock's Surprise

The regulation motion to adjourn was held up after Republican Leader Lodge had made it, the Vice-President explaining that he wanted to find out first what the Senate was going to do about the violation of its standing rule against applause.

Then quite unexpectedly, when Senator Lodge a moment later renewed his motion, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, leading the Democratic fight for treaty ratification jumped to his feet with a demand for the ayes and nays.

AT CONFERENCE IN PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Edward Weaver, Representative County at Convention at Bellevue Stratford.

Mrs. Edward Weaver of High street, is attending the sixth annual North Atlantic Tuberculosis Conference in the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia. She is representing Adams county at the meeting.

Startling facts were revealed by members of the medical profession saying that more than 2,000,000 persons in the United States are suffering from tuberculosis and do not know it. At least 150,000 persons, most of whom could be saved by early medical attention, die annually from the dread disease.

Walter D. Thurber, of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, was the principal speaker at the conference Thursday and told of the progress that had been made in Illinois in the fight against the white plague. A general discussion followed on the tuberculosis problem.

Increase in the death rate due to tuberculosis was attributed to war-time foods and later to the influence of influenza epidemic.

Before the close of the session the campaign for the sale of the Red Cross seals was taken up at a round table meeting. This movement is for sale of the well known seals attached to letters and packages, the proceeds from which are used to fight tuberculosis. About $1,800,000 worth of seals were sold in 1917. The campaign this year will probably be held from December 1 to 10.

MR. ORCHARDIST

Maybe your orchard doesn't get wet with dew in the night, and doesn't get you cold and wet in the mornings before the sun gets busy. But if it does—here's the remedy—A pair of overboots. A light weight rubber boot to be worn OVER the ordinary leather shoe. Protects the leg to the knee, and buckles right below it to keep the top up. When the sun gets up and dries the grass, jerk them off, roll them up, and put them in your pocket—they weigh only 2-1/2 lbs. a pair. Ask to see them the next time you are in town—$2.75 a pair—you will have lots of winter use for them too.

GREAT CORN CROP IS NOT HARMED

Yield of 2,900,511,000 Forecast Harvest Now on. No Frost Damage.

The country's enormous corn crop has "run unharmed the gauntlet of dangers that faced it during the doubtful days and nights of September, and lays in to the lap of mallow October 43,000,000 bushels more of ripened ears than it could promise at the beginning of that month." The Department of Agriculture commented in issuing the October crop report forecasting a yield of 2,900,511,000 bushels. Practically all of the crop has, or will, mature without frost damage, assuring high feeding value. Husking and cribbing has begun.

Blight, scab and black rust, together with minor ills, brought the good early prospects for spring wheat in the north-central producing section down until the reckoning now shows almost 5,000,000 bushels less than forecast a month ago, the total crop being placed at 202,170,000 bushels.

Barley showed an increase of more than 3,000,000 bushels, while potatoes an increase of 876,000 bushels, buckwheat 802,000 bushels, apples 3,479,000 bushels and beans 1,327,000 bushels.

Reduced forecasts were given for oats with a yield lessened by 5,204,000 bushels; sweet potatoes with a decrease of 907,000 bushels and tobacco with 950,000 pounds.

MASS MEETING RIOT CAUSE

Judge Gillan Decides to Hold Special Session of Court.

A mass meeting of the Waynesboro strikers in Friedley's woods was the inception of the riot and consequent disorderly demonstration at the Landis Tool company plant in Greenscastle on August 21, according to testimony of the defense introduced Wednesday. Amos Oller, a defendant in the case, testified that at the meeting on the morning of the occurrence, Organizer Hayes addressed the men, informing them that the Greenscastle workers were ready to go out, providing they were given the encouragement of the Waynesboro workers. Following the speech a vote by up-raised hands was taken on whether the strikers should go to Greenscastle to encourage the workers.

At the beginning of the afternoon session Judge Gillan, in the Waynesboro court, announced that the court would not be able to finish the cases listed for the trial in the court of quarter sessions this week and that this court would be continued through next week, if attorneys handling civil cases agreed. The civil cases will be heard the week of November 11, and Judge Gillan will summon a special jury for the week. All cases in surety of the peace and desertion will be heard on October 18.

BE PREPARED FOR INFLUENZA

Cut This Out

Many medical men say we will probably have another epidemic this fall. Let us all hope and pray we will not. But at the same time let us be well prepared.

The flu as it is called, usually starts with a cold and tightness in the chest. If you even suspect there is a chance that you may be getting influenza take a good dose of laxative tea, such as Dr. Carter's K & B Tea, or Celery King and send for your physician. While you are waiting for the doctor rub Begg's Mustardine on throat and chest.

Rub it on freely and never mind if it does feel good and hot, it cannot blister even the tenderest skin.

But don't stop at throat and chest; get some one to rub this enemy of inflammation over your entire back and especially between the shoulder blades.

This is one of the most sensible precautions you can take against pneumonia, which often quickly follows the flu and is just what the doctor tries hard to sidetrack.

You can get Begg's Mustardine for 30 and 60 cents in yellow boxes all ready for use at any drug store.

Remember it is made of real yellow mustard. Use it for sore throat, coughs, chest colds, pleurisy, bronchitis, lumbago and all aches and pains.

NAVAL CIRCLES STIRRED

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 10.—Naval circles have been stirred by three unfortunate incidents at the Naval Academy within a week of the opening of the new scholastic year. To the cases of Philip H. Seltzer, of Lebanon, Pa., who on Sunday afternoon slashed his chest with a penknife and drank iodine and ink, and Oliver H. Martin, of New Carlisle, N. H., who has suffered a nervous collapse, has been added that of Henry C. Wetherstine, of 124 East Upsal street, Philadelphia, who also drank iodine. All three belong to the new fourth class.

Rear Admiral A. H. Scales, superintendent of the Naval Academy, definitely denied that hazing had anything to do with the cases of Seltzer or Marvin, though the former stated that he had received light hazing or "running" from upper classmen.

"Knowing what Tanlac did for my 80-year-old mother, I immediately decided to try it when catarrh and indigestion began to get the best of me," said W. L. Fransworth, 1200 W. Montgomery ave., Phila. "I had lost 34 pounds. Tanlac soon drove the catarrh out of my system. I'm gaining weight and feeling fine now." Catarrh is the most frequent cause of dyspepsia. Bright's disease, deafness and often serious lung troubles. Thousands have testified to Tanlac's powers over this dreaded disease. AVOID THE "FLU"

BUILD UP NOW

You can Almost Surely Escape the "Flu" and Grippy Colds this Fall by Taking Chasco-Vin a most palatable body-building tonic.

Don't put it off it is much easier to keep the "Flu" away than it is to cure it.

No one would have the awful experience of a year ago repeated. In conjunction with Chasco-Vin hence all should take every precaution, especially those who are weak, nervous and run-down. They absolutely need Chasco-Vin.

During the last epidemic thousands were safeguarded by taking Chasco-Vin, a body-building tonic that does build.

It is the toning up of the system that counts in keeping the "Flu" away. In conjunction with Chasco-Vin we advise using a good anti-septic solution for the throat and nose and also that the bowels be kept open.

Chasco-Vin is sold by News Stand Drug Store, P. W. Stallsmith, Prop.,

Yes, Sir! A tankful of Atlantic Gasoline is a tankful of terrific power, challenging the throttle to go the limit. When you want power, you press the accelerator and the Atlantic delivers instantly.

An organization of refiners with fifty years' experience and a conscience sees to it that the vaunted uniformity of Atlantic Gasoline is an actuality, never deviated from.

The undersigned executor of the will of Martin Winter, late of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, deceased, by virtue of the authority in said will contained will offer at public sale on the premises the following described valuable business properties:-

Tract No. 1: A lot of ground in the Borough of Gettysburg, on the North side of the first block of Chambersburg street, fronting 26 feet, 2 inches on said street, and extending 181½ feet to an alley in the rear. The Marvel Vacuum Cleaner

If you have been thinking that you must have electricity to enjoy the satisfaction and pride of an immaculate, vacuum-cleaned home, you'll be delighted with the Marvel. It cleans just as electric vacuum cleaners do—but requires no more than the simple running over your floors to do it.—There are no wires to fuss with—no plugs to screw and unscrew every time you want to clean. The Marvel is always ready—and efficient—in any home, anywhere.

Extremely Simple—But Thorough

Just run your Marvel over the rugs—that's all there's to it. A child can clean with it, easily. The revolving brush picks up all hair, thread, lint, paper-snips, etc.; loosens the trodden-in dirt; and the powerful suction of the fan whisks dust, dirt and surface litter into the dust-proof bag.

Your Home Quickly Cleaned

To clean with the Marvel is to clean your whole home in the time it took to clean one room. The nozzle is specially designed to clean a wide swath of rug at one stroke, and can be adjusted to any height of nap.

After you've cleaned with the Marvel, your home stays clean longer. No dust is raised. All the dust and dirt goes directly into the bag.

You'll find it particularly handy in cleaning up the dining room right after meals—always ready, it invites frequent cleaning.

Most Economical

The Marvel does what electric vacuum cleaners do—and costs less than half. There are no bills for current to pay; no expensive motor to get out of order. The first cost is the only cost—one that every woman can afford. See the Marvel demonstrated by all means. Its efficiency will surprise you.

We have tested the Marvel thoroughly and found that it does all that's claimed for it. In fact, it does even more. It's really astonishing—the amount of dirt the Marvel takes from rugs and carpets that seem perfectly clean.

The Marvel will save your time, strength, and health. It makes house-cleaning easy as can be. And its cost is so low that every woman can afford it. Come in. We'll gladly demonstrate it. Then judge for yourself if you can afford to do without it.

Bethlehem Oil Company(No Stockholders Liability)
Incorporated Under the Laws of the State of New Mexico
ROSSELL, NEW MEXICO
AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, (All Common Stock), $100,000A Company in which you will own a part of the Leases as well as the Stock—become a real oil man and take your profits as the oil is sold.This is a clean, straightforward business deal where every investor participates in the profits.PROPERTYLeases on 2,560 acres of government land—1,600 acres in Eddy County and 960 acres in Chavis County, New Mexico.The leases are adjoining and close to the leases of the Carter Oil Company, the Lincoln Oil Company, the Illinois Producers' and Refiners' Oil Company, the West Columbia and Trans Pecos Oil Company, and Kansas Oil Company, and the Roswell Oil Development Company.These leases were selected after a careful study of the field and its conditions, and are considered by competent oil men and geologists to be in first-class territory, which is further evidenced by the drilling that is being done in that territory by other companies.DEVELOPMENTThe Brown and Belt wells are producing oil now from the 1,200 foot sand. The former as high as 200 barrels and the latter 75 barrels. Twenty five companies are drilling. The Illinois Producers & Refiners Oil Co., have two rigs running and one of the wells is reported to have oil standing from 1000 to 1500 feet deep. The Lincoln Oil Co., has oil in their first well and are preparing to start the second well. The Carter Oil Co., (A Standard Oil Co. subsidiary) have picked three locations and are to start work at once. These are all successful companies. There is an unusually thick sand at about 3,000 feet and large production is expected from this sand. From the manner in which the companies are working it will be but a short time until one of them hit the big sand and then the big boom will be started, and those who were lucky enough to get in on the ground floor will reap the big reward of their foresight, and millions will be made by the investors, as has been done in other fields.A little more than two years ago the oil fields of North Texas was not dreamed of. This year the fields are producing millions of barrels of oil, and millions of dollars for the investors. Over 400 people have been made millionaires and thousands have made small fortunes, within the past two years, from oil. Today the eyes of the oil world are watching New Mexico.PLAN OF FINANCING AND DEVELOPMENTWe have set aside a one-sixteenth part of the lease on an 800-acre tract (which will be room for over 100 wells) and have divided this part of the lease into 800 units, or acres. Each unit will participate in its pro rata share of all the oil or gas produced from this 800-acre tract. Each unit will get its share from each well regardless of the location of the well on this tract.With each unit of the lease is included $25.00 par value in stock, and the price of the unit and stock is $100.00.The stock participates in its pro rata share of the earnings from the entire 2,560 acres.The earnings from the unit of the lease are paid from the bank free of any expenses of the company. As leases are the big money-making end of the oil business, one or more units should make the owner big money, which will be paid every month as the oil is sold. The money derived from the sale of these units will be sufficient to drill two wells, and the by-laws of the company provide that 75 per cent of the money shall be used in drilling and expenses incidental thereto on this 800-acre tract.When you consider that leases in an oil field sell as high as $50,000 per acre, you can readily see the great earning possibilities of your investment when you buy at the price now offered.Do you know of any other company that gave the investor the opportunity to own an interest in the lease. We are offering you an unusual opportunity you had better take advantage of it at once, because these units are going fast. Consult the following table and see what an advantage this plan gives you. Do you know of any other company guaranteeing that 75 per cent of the money is to be used in drilling?$100 INVESTMENT WILL EARN

	One Unit of Lease

Earnings of five shares of stock ($25.00 par value) would be in addition to above.There is room for more than 100 wells on this 800-acre tract.
Should they average but 250 barrels per day, at $3.00 per barrel it would make each unit worth thousands of dollars.The company is not and never has been in debt. The officers of the company are individual investors in its capital stock and have paid cash for their holdings.The funds will be handled by the American National Bank of Roswell, New Mexico, and every reasonable safeguard thrown around your investment.There were only 800 units to be sold.—This wonderful opportunity is yours only if you act now.—To make money for the organizers they must bring in oil and make money for you. You can't make money in oil by putting it off from day to day, because while you are waiting oil is struck, somebody else makes the money, and you are too late. The drill will soon be running, and then you can't get in at any price. Fill out the application and mail today. Don't let this pass by. Get some of the BIG MONEY that is being made in oil.DRILLING REPORTThe drilling report covering the entire oil producing sections of the country for the first six months of the present year show:
13,212 wells completed, 2,802 were dry holes. This is an average of about five producing wells to one dry hole. Considering this fact the oil business does not seem as hazardous as some other lines of endeavor.No salaries are being paid to either the officers or directors, except the secretary, who receives $10.00 per week, and no salaries will be paid until drilling starts, and then only to those actually engaged in the work. The officers and directors knowing the territory as they do, and being convinced of the tremendous earning power of the property, are willing to take their earnings from the oil just as the other stockholders will do. That is why we have provided that 75 per cent of the money from the sale of the units of lease shall be used for drilling.THERE IS MONEY IN OIL and we want to produce it just as quickly as possible.
